

"Most (upcoming Congolese) artists are influenced by successful DJ Spilulu productions"

- Fally Ipupa

"Modern yet still pulsating with rhythms that feel as though they have existed since time immemorial. Dance floor ready beats straight out of Lubumbashi/ Katanga D.R.C with spiritual elements to feed the soul."

- Bang The Drum

"Spilulu, the father of Lubumbashi house music"

- On Dit Quoi

"I met Spilulu for the first time in South Africa. Then, a few years later he moved back to Lubumbashi and managed to establish a sound and what seems to be the beginning of a massive movement in the region."

- Bodhi Satva

"I love Spilulu from Congo (DRC). That guy is wow! I need to go see this guy live!"

- Benjamin Lebrave (Akwaaba Music | The Fader)

SPILULU

Spilulu is originally from Lubumbashi / Katanga, Democratic Republic of Congo. At the start of his musical journey he was mainly recognized as a steady Hip-Hop, R&B and House producer.

In 2009, Mzilikazi Wa Afrika quickly discovered Spilulu (back then named G'Sparks) and signed him to the label "Bomba Record". This milestone turned Spilulu into a real "Tribal-House beat Monster". As a result, Spilulu was featured in Mzee's album "Tamanini". Spilulu and Mzee formed the A-Team alongside Jaso Moke, Silly M, Sbonza, Morra Derey, Willie and Godheaven.

After this huge success, Spilulu quickly followed his production with another musical breakthrough named Mukubwa, released by Offering Recordings. Mukubwa has been supported by many living legends such as Louie Vega, Black Coffee and Jerome Sydenham. His ongoing success and international prestige resulted in multiple releases on quality record labels around the globe, including Arrecha, Nulu Records, Bomba and Peng Africa.

2015 was a glimpse of what is yet to come for Spilulu, one the top 100 most influential people of Lubumbashi. He also had his first professional experiences in Kenya and Asia. 2016 is the big kickoff of his global DJ career with upcoming European tours and the release of his new album "Shonta Mu Mbingu" on Offering Recordings, alongside many other great productions.

Spilulu is the human representation of the musical future of the heart and center of Africa, the Congo.
